[Assigned to: Hon. Judge Barry Russell]

OPPOSITION TO MS. BLALOCK'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Hearing Date: 20 August 2024

Hearing Time: 10:00 A.M.

Courtroom: 1668

Edward Roybal Building

255 E. Temple St.

Los Angeles, CA 90012

Judge: Hon. Barry Russell

24 Plaintiff Dr. Stewart Lucas Murrey hereby opposes Defendant Amy Blalock's
25 motion to dismiss his adversarial claim. As noted in his adversary complaint, Ms.
26 Blalock is unlawfully weaponizing bankruptcy to elude justice for her intentional
27 and malicious injury of Dr. Murrey and for which defendant is currently being 28 prosecuted (Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 23STCV14890). Dr. Murrey has filed a motion for order in the Blalock's related bankruptcy case (24-bk-12532-BR-

Chapter 7) confirming no stay of said LASC action and/or relief from stay. After obtaining this confirmation and/or relief, it is his intention to continue to litigate said original state case. It is Plaintiff's right to prosecute Ms. Blalock in his state court case and wherein Ms. Blalock also has every right to defend herself against Dr. Murrey's claims.

In her attempt to mislead this Court, Defendant Blalock has misrepresented several facts. First: Blalock lies about the state of service of defendants in said LASC case no. 23STCV14890. Dr. Murrey is currently in the process of unmasking several anonymous Facebook accounts involved in the online conspiracy to gang-stalk, cyberbully and defame him. Unlike Blalock who has clearly violated the law by her participation in said defamation conspiracy and filed bankruptcy in bad faith, Dr. Murrey has never litigated frivolously. Blalock's Exhibit "A" merely refers to the judge of said LASC case no. 23STCV14890 suggesting a $60.00 fee for failure to serve defendants absent a reasonable explanation in a response to an Order to Show Cause ("OSC") set in the future in September of 2024. Thus Blalock's Exhibit proves nothing other than Dr. Murrey's case against her and others is moving forward. Everything Blalock claimed about service of defendants and the number of defendants being served is factually wrong. This is why Ms. Blalock failed to provide a declaration authenticating anything she states in her motion to dismiss.

In the event that this Court requires, Dr. Murrey seeks leaves to amend his adversary complaint, to include a statement that he does not consent to entry of final orders or judgment of the bankruptcy Court. Dr. Murrey is the victim of an elaborate online conspiracy to harm his life and work that goes back to at least 2016. In good faith he is seeking to litigate as best as he can while representing himself. Thus if any defects are perceived in regard to Fed. Rule of Bankruptcy Proc. 7012(b), plaintiff respectfully requests leave to have them properly remedied. Because Dr. Murrey welcomes the chance to proceed with his state case against Ms. Blalock (LASC case no. 23STCV14890), he has filed a motion for order confirming no stay of said LASC action and/or relief from such stay. This way his litigation can proceed despite Blalock's notice of stay of action in her attempt to frivolously confuse and complicate matters.

Blalock's section three: "Facts" has several misrepresentations. The judge of the subject LASC case no. 23STCV14890 denied Blalock's anti-SLAPP motion i.e. wherein Libel, Libel per se and False Light survived. Plaintiff's currently pending causes of action meet the "willful, malicious intent" needed to meet the threshold for nondischargeability of debt. Said judge of the LASC case no. 23STCV14890 disagreed that Blalock's statements about Dr. Murrey had anything to do with "women's security against male violence and harassment" (Declaration of Plaintiff Dr. Stewart Lucas Murrey, ¶¶ 3-4, Exh. "1"). In fact, the superior court state judge made it clear in her ruling that Blalock's false accusations of plaintiff having committed several murders was intentional and malicious (Ibid.). That Ms. Blalock has the audacity to openly lies to this Court as when she states that such statements

1 were intended “only to inform” to protect the public suggests that Blalock should be 2 sanctioned.

3 Defendant’s other remarks e.g. that she does not have enough information to 4 respond to Dr. Murrey’s discovery is irrelevant. This is a matter to be determined in 5 the above-noted LASC case no. 23STCV14890 and not in Federal bankruptcy
6 Court. As pointed out in Dr. Murrey adversary complaint, a clear sign that Blalock
7 is unlawfully abusing Federal bankruptcy court to elude justice is the fact that she 8 filed less than two days after receiving Dr. Murrey’s proper meet & confer from 30
9 March 2024 concerning her failure to respond to his discovery in said LASC case
10 no. 23STCV14890 (Decl. Dr. Murrey, ¶ 5, Exh. “2”). It is clear that Ms. Blalock not 11 only intended to maliciously harm Dr. Murrey herself individuals, but also that 12 Defendant knowingly participated with others such as Kelly Gibbons in an online
13 Facebook conspiracy to intentionally and malicious harm him. (Decl. Dr. Murrey, ¶ 14 6, Exh. “3”). Defendant is aware of his intentional and malicious harm and seeking 15 any excuse to elude justice, including a severe misuse of Federal bankruptcy Court.
16

17 For the reasons stated above and the evidence presented and authenticated
18 herein, Dr. Murrey has proven already in his superior court state case (LASC case 19 no. 23STCV14890) that there is a clear likelihood of Dr. Murrey prevailing against 20 Ms. Blalock for Libel, Libel per se and False Light (Dr. Murrey, ¶¶ 3-4, Exh. “1”).
21 Each of these three causes of action carry punitive damages. They they represent
22 intentional and malicious acts. By secretly accusing Plaintiff of several murders
